

This Bachelor thesis deals with the musical legacy and influence of Jan František Novák as Kapellmeister in st. Vitus Cathedral in Prague between 1737 and 1758. The main object is the analysis of his Missa sancti Joannis Nepomuceni and its framework classification into the context of then sacramental compositions. An integral part of this bachelor thesis is the edition of this mass.