

ABSTRACT

My diploma thesis focuses on comparison of Czech and Belgian textbooks of social science.

The theoretical part includes description and comparison of Czech and Belgian educational system and concept of social science. The theoretical part includes also description of word “textbook”.

The practical part consists of analysis of Czech and Belgian textbooks according to the criteria. Attitudes and opinions of Czech and Belgian teachers are written there. It includes the observation of social science classes, too.