

The scope of Bachelor thesis: „Israel and Jews in the media of contemporary Spain“ is to show how spanish mass media represent Israel and Jews. I will focus as well on historical context that influenced this representation. I will describe the attitude of Franco's regime towards Jews and relations between Spain and Israel since its creation until the present day. Then I will point out some mass media theories that are relevant for my thehis. Finally I will focus on public opinion polls and deduce how influenced they are by previous occurrences.