

This text is open to all interested members of the general public as well as with a narrow range of educational materials for teachers and athletic trainers in secondary schools, sports schools, athletics, etc. This work describes the most important historical moments the athletics throwing events.