

ABSTRACT

As a reason for creating this work is to introduce the youth organizations of political parties. In this work they are the Young Conservatives, cooperating with the Civic democratic party. Further its structure, purpose of organization, statutes and a cooperation with affiliated political party. Relations formal and informal are very important, because of influence at youth organizations. The membership in youth organizations became mostly basic reason for young people to enter this party. It's very helpful for members to create their future opinions and attitudes in their political life. The work will involve the definition of youth organizations, historical events, functioning and activities of The Young Conservatives.

Key words: youth organization of political parties, The Young Conservatives, cooperation with ODS – The Civic democratic party.