

ABSTRACT:

The aim of this thesis is to bring forth translation of the text The Intent to Live of Larry Moss and the commentary of the translation. The thesis has several parts – the translation itself and the commentary which consists of analysis of the original text, translation problems and typology of the translation shifts.