

ABSTRACT

The content of this thesis is an analysis of coal mining in Czechoslovakia in 1918–1938. The accent is focused on technical and technological aspects of coal through to economic, political, mining law and other conditions that influence it. The technical part of mining has been for better visibility of work is divided into several stages. The thesis presents a summary of the regions of coal mining, the quantity of extracted coal and methods of coal mining.

Keywords:

The Czechoslovakia, coal mining, technology, methods of extraction, mining industry