

Annotation

I address first of all the interpretation of the first chapter of the second Nietzsche's Untimely Meditation in my thesis. I want to survey construction of foundation human being's life on time, which is synthesis of time and Being, namely through discussion of motives of time, feelings and speech. What I want to demonstrate is that Being of human being is exclusively understandable from time.