

Titel: Choreography short program of synchronized skating

Name: Bc.Hana Křivová

Goals of the thesis: This diploma thesis deals with composition of a short program of synchronized skating group Daisies. It focuses on particular formations and step sequences in accordance with the Synchronized skating rules.

Method: The thesis is of a descriptive character. The methods used in the thesis are controlled observation and interview. Literature, experience and information gained in international meetings and competitions, further consultations with international coaches and technical specialists are commonly used in the thesis.

Results: The thesis gives clear description of the Synchronized skating rules for Senior category. It shows the choreography of the short program of senior team Daisies. It uses pictures and description of particular formations, with arrangement on the ice.

Key words: synchronized skating, synchronized skating history, short program, choreography