

Abstract in English

The thesis is composed of seven chapters. The first one is an introduction.

In the second chapter I summarize the reasons, why a new regulation of insolvency law was needed.

The third chapter is about pre-conditions for adjudication of bankruptcy in general and about the sources of their regulation.

The fourth chapter is about the pre-conditions that are based in the material law and especially about all aspects of bankruptcy.

The chapter No. 5 describes the conditions of civil and insolvency proceeding.

Separately in chapter No. 6 is a description of moratorium.

The thesis ends with conclusions.
