

Annotation

This Thesis deals with the philosophy and ethics of St. Thomas Aquinas and of St. Augustine. At first I characterize the time period then I am focusing on each category concerning moral life of human being in the world such as God, soul, will, goodness, evil and happiness as well. My goal is to show the real purpose of human existence and to show how both philosophers understand individual topics, what is the same and different in their opinion.