

Annotation

The aim of this work is from the most part response for the questions: What is pringing parents and therefore their children to Waldorf schools? Why do they in many cases long distaches from their homes to Waldorf schools? Do they pay tuition fee? Why do they come each month to schools for parents reuninon? Why do they help school without any compensation?

In the theoretical part there is a definition of this motivation, there are mapped out some specifics of Waldorf education and teaching methodology according to Dr. Rudolf Steiner, founder of the Anthoposophy it Waldorf education is based on. In the empirii part there is evaluation of the result of the research focused on investigation of the motivation.