

The main objective of the Bachelor thesis was the performance of the baroque palace with the name Blücher, which is located in the centre of Opava, familiarity with its complicated historical and building developments, survey of facades, interiors, documentation of the palace, but also describe political and cultural circumstances in which this Baroque work was created.