

Abstract

This bachelor work contains theoretical chapters about motor abilities and skills, chapters about motor tests and evolution of preschool child. In practical part there is deal with problem of influence of three kindergartens on motor evolution of children, who attend these kindergartens, in point of view of reached level of motor abilities and skills in chosen tests.