

This bachelor's thesis is about the urban public space. There are covered its different forms, utilization option and its history of formation. Also it is about significance of being public space which is composed of individual elements as architecture, transport, pleasure ground, practical elements and art. Artwork is focused on object in public space, which is in harmony with that place. The object of didactic part is about arousing students to empathy for that place and relationship with it.