

TITLE:

Education and Toleration in the Work of John Amos Comenius and John Locke

AUTHOR:

Nikola Schullerová

DEPARTMENT:

Social Sciences and Philosophy Department

SUPERVISOR:

doc. PhDr. Naděžda Pelcová, CSc.

ABSTRACT:

This bachelor's thesis is focused on ideas of upbringing and toleration in John Locke's and John Amos Comenius writings. The aim of the thesis is to present main thoughts of both authors using the analysis of origin sources. The thesis tries to present John Locke's and John Amos Comenius opinions within the broad historical context which indicates their basic concentration and influential historical background. At the end of the thesis, there is a comparison between John Locke and John Amos Comenius which puts the emphasis on their distinctions and similarities. The final comparison concentrates its attention especially on the different extent of John Locke's and John Amos Comenius thoughts.

KEYWORDS: John Amos Comenius, John Locke, upbringing, toleration, education