

Bachelor thesis deals with the evaluation of the effectiveness of the investment project Coffee with Master and Margarita. The first part summarizes selected available literature about evaluating investments, the financial plan, determine the cost of capital, risk and determine the value. Considerable space is also devoted to the review of methods of investment evaluation. The second part is devoted to a specific example of a detailed assessment of the investment plan open cafe, the described theory is put into practice.