

ABSTRAKT V ANGLICKÉM JAZYCE

ABSTRACT:

The work provides comprehensive information on the development and structure of financial support from the European Union and how to use schools and school facilities. The next section deals with the pitfalls with which schools and educational institutions face in the implementation of projects financed from the EU Structural Funds. The conclusion includes recommendations for managing authorities and suggestions for new topics in the training of managers of schools and school facilities.