

Annotation

MÜLLEROVÁ, Petra. Seniors with visual impairment in the context of live quality.

Praha: Pedagogical Faculty, Charles University, 2013. 53 pp. Bachelor Degree Thesis.

This work deals with the aging process and the subsequent age from the perspective of biological and psychosocial aspects with taking into account to visual impairment. After defining the basic characteristics of advanced age and visual impairment, deals with the life of one elderly person with impaired vision that lives in the home for the visually impaired Palata. The aim work is to highlight the quality of life of people with visual impairments in advanced age. In the end of work is a recommendation for special education theory and practice related to old people.

Key words: biological and psychosocial aspects of aging, senior age, visual impairment, quality of life in advanced age, institutions Palata