Mentor comments to thesis and student approach:

Ioanna Papadopoulou choose the topic by herself. She prepared the first version of the thesis which had been rewritten completely due to similarity found with other thesis from Bratislava University. New version is her work without any similarities. She worked hard to follow my instructions in order to improve the quality of her thesis. Despite this fact especially level of English language is just good but I believe that it contain some important information regarding Herpes Zoster disease.

Evaluation of diploma thesis: good, to defense: recommended
