

Annotation

This work „Ženy na stráž! Exkurz do nitra politicky aktivní ženy 1. republiky“ is about very interesting woman Božena Viková-Kunětická. She lived in the 19th and 20th century and she was a writer and politician. This work is about her political and also literary career. With Božena Viková-Kunětická worked in politics series of women and this work is dedicated also their political activities and their struggle for democracy.

This work has a six chapters. First and second is about her family and presents us her private life and her friendship with J. S. Machar. The third chapter is about her literary career. The fourth chapter is about activity of women in the monarchy in the 19th century. The fifth chapter is about her political opinions and about Czech fascism and the sixth chapter is about activity of women in the first republic.