

Abstract

Diploma thesis deals with the history of soccer in Roudnice nad Labem. It is dedicated to the beginning of czech football, Roudnice nad Labem city and origin of soccer rules. It is aimed at significant moments and events, which are chronologically described. Reminds of players, coaches and officials, who mostly participated or participate in the origin and work of football clubs in Roudnice and should contribute to the inspiration and enrichment both the current and the future generation of players and fans of Roudnice soccer.