

The aim of this work is to create a computer version of famous and popular board game Twilight Struggle. The program allows users to play the game in hotseat mode or in mode against computer controlled opponent. Automatic checking and enforcement of game rules accelerates the game. Game can be saved at any time. Program is developed in JAVA programming language and is multi-platform.