

Title: The "female wonder" in German literature - interpretation of selected narrative prose

Department: Department of German language and literature

Author: Jiří Tláškal

Supervisor: doc. PhDr. Viera Glosíková, CSc.

Pages: 74

Language: German

Keywords: female wonder, Judith Hermann, Julia Franck, analysis, narrative prose

Abstrakt:

The topic of this bachelor thesis is the analysis and interpretation of two selected works written by two contemporary German woman writers: Judith Hermann's Alice and Julia Franck's Liebediener, with special attention to the inclusion of these writers in the "female wonder in the German literature" phenomenon.