

This thesis deals with the view of the current education of Roma children. It presents the most common reasons of their educational failures. It also explores options available in the field of education offered to Roma children in order to improve the quality of their education and study results. In my thesis I worked with the information provided by the Ministry of Education and by the organizations providing social services to Roma children,-and Romani minority. The results of my work offer social workers and the general public.