

Author's summary

The aim of this bachelor thesis is to delve deeper into the music of Mozart's piano compositions. I have chosen two piano sonatas for the analysis of his compositional style and patterns of interpretation of his pieces. While making the formal analysis of the chosen compositions I've as well pondered over the aspects of their interpretation. These formal and interpretative analysis advocated in the context of Mozart's life and works.