

The thesis focuses on the practical aspects of securing bank receivables and establishment of a pledge over the receivables. The importance is given to the judgements of the Supreme Court of the Czech Republic. The core of the thesis is observing the different conclusions of the legal theory, judgments of the Supreme Court of the Czech Republic, academicians and specialists.