

Abstract

Title: Funding of sport in the Czech Republic and Great Britain

Objectives: The main goal of this thesis is to summarize the system of funding of sport in the Czech Republic and then to compare it with the system in Great Britain.

Methods: There was used the method of descriptive analysis in this thesis that was used to evaluate the technical literature, Ministry of education, youth and sports materials and other texts regarding to this topic. The second method used was informal interview through electronic mail that was used for receiving information about the funding system in Great Britain.

Results: Result of this thesis is description of sport funding systems in the Czech Republic and Great Britain. Differences and weaknesses of these systems are highlighted in the end of this thesis.

Keywords: funding of sport, public budgets, sport organizations in the Czech Republic