Přepis rozhovoru s Colinem Burtonem, pracovníkem Department for Culture, Media and Sport. Rozhovor probíhal prostřednictvím elektronické pošty od 14.3.2013 do 21.3.2013.

Vítězslav Černý: Dear Sir or Madam, my name is Vitezslav Cerny and I study at Fakulty of Physical Education and Sport at Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic. I am writing a thesis about funding of sport in The Czech Republic in comparison with other European countries. I am looking for some information about this topic in your country and my teacher gave me your kontakt saying that you are well-informed person. I would be pleased if you can provide me some usefull information about this topic.

Colin Burton: Thank you for your email about your thesis. The Department receives many many student requests and we do not have the resources to respond to the specific questions. However, I can point you in the right direction. DCMS sets the policy framework for sport funding decisions. Day to day decision-making on the distribution of funding for sport and physical activity is the responsibility of our funding bodies. The financial support available to sport from the DCMS is primarily channelled through two DCMS sponsored bodies - Sport England for community sport and UK Sport for elite sport, in consultation with the national governing bodies of sport.

Vítězslav Černý: Thank you very much. Would it be possible to sent me some links where I can find some useful information please ?

Colin Burton: Therefore, I suggest you check the following websites:
<http://www.sportengland.org/default.aspx>
<http://www.uk sport.gov.uk/>

Vítězslav Černý: Thank you. I will visit these adress and I hope I will find informatik that I am looking for.

Colin Burton: I can offer you some more information. Sport England is investing £493m into 46 sports between 2013 and 2017 to support the next generation of talented athletes. Further details are available on their website at this link:

Good luck with your studies

Vítězslav Černý: Thank you very much for your answer. The information you sent to me is really useful. It is a big help for me.
