

The presented diploma work deals with the integration of children with diabetes in the company with a focus on education. The main objective of this work is to highlight the problems and situations with which it must contend daily pediatric patients with type I diabetes. The project should teach classmates disabled children, how his friends help some complications of their disease. The theoretical part of the work is the basis for the project itself and the practical part deals with both the project itself and by questionnaire, the results pointed to the advisability of this project into the classroom.