

Annotation

This bachelor thesis "Perceptions of school bullying in early adolescence" is focused on the issue of bullying in primary schools, particularly in the 6th classes. The thesis is divided into two main parts, theoretical and practical.

The theoretical part consists of three chapters, the first deals with bullying, definitions and reasons of bullying, its forms and individual actors. The second chapter describes early adolescence in term of developmental psychology, and the third part is focused on the class climate, students and teachers as its main creators.

The practical part is about course and results of research focused on 6th class pupils filled out a questionnaire on perceptions of bullying.

Key words:

Bullying, victim, aggressor, class climate, early adolescents' perception