

Catholic High School and the new Curriculum in the Czech Republic

Dissertation pursues theory of curriculum and aim of education in catholic secondary school in context of process of introduction of Framework Education Programme for Secondary General Education in the Czech Republic. Dissertation evolves theory of christocentric curriculum according to documents of Second Vatican Council and Congregation for Catholic Education. From this point of view are analyzed School Education Programmes of fourteen Secondary Schools founded by Catholic Church in the Czech Republic.