

ABSTRACT in English:

This thesis deals with a project in an after-school club in theory and subsequently the project "Culture and Arts Pardubice" is demonstrated in practice.

The theoretical part deals with after-school clubs, their function and importance for parents and pupils. I mention organizational forms of work there and emphasize the project as a highly effective tool which is appreciated by pupils as well.

The practical part is devoted to the project "Culture and Arts Pardubice", which I have implemented in the after-school club of the primary school Polabiny 1 – Pardubice.
