

Summary

The theme of the bachelor's work is the compositional work of Bohumil Bouda (1896–1960) – composer, pianist, violinist, conductor, choirmaster, music teacher and the first headmaster of the City Music School of Jihlava.

The work is concentrated on Bouda's compositions for violin with an emphasis on the instructive literature.

Detailed analysis of one of Bouda's pieces for violin and piano is the important part of the work.