

My bachelor thesis will introduce one of the most famous camp charities - the women's club Zora. The work will focus on eighty years of Zora's history starting from 1870 until 1950. As this is a relatively long period, the relevant chapter will be divided into three parts. Moreover I will focus on the educational, volunteering and cultural activity of the charity and demonstrate Zora's importance for the town of Tábor.