

Abstract

The Bachelor's thesis has explanatory and interpretative character. The focus of it is to explain and interpret three peaces of work by Anglo-American writer Neil Gaiman: Coraline, Newerwhere and American Gods. First part is focused on general characteristic of fantasy genre, the second then on analysis of above mentioned peaces with specific concentration on archetypes and other world's topos.