

Abstract

Scientific evaluation of the some localities:

The thesis Scientific evaluation of some of the locations is focused on detailed description of botanical conditions of this area and possible utilization of the gained knowledge in the education. The thesis has three parts. The first part is specialized in characteristics of natural conditions of the area. The second part consists of description biotops of the area and summarises results of personal botanical research. The didactic part proposes utilization of the knowledge in the education and the possibility of the out-door fieldwork for pupils of basic school and secondary school. The thesis includes photo suplement, too.

Key words : out-door fieldwork, worksheet, biological education.