

Abstract

Based on the biblical text and the study of Abraham we will analyze the content of the film Abraham (1993) and subsequent critical evaluation to rate appreciate the suitability of this work as an aid in the catechesis of adults. This thesis first tries to determine the degree of conformity of the content of the film with Bible text and film analysis and comparison with the text of the Bible, and the analysis and comparison of the film takes place simultaneously in connection with the plot of the film. This was followed by another part of the work that tries on the basis of a comparison with the previous biblical theology to answer the question whether the film Abraham suitable tool for catechesis for adults.
