

Abstract (in English):

The main goal of the theoretical part is explaining the principles relating to alternative sanctions, focusing on community service and home detention. The content bachelor thesis is methodical process of the Probation and Mediation Service in the preparation and execution of a sentence of home detention and community service. Thesis is eventually focused on the activities of the Centre in the Czech Lipa, using statistical data for a specified period.