

Abstract

The topic of this thesis is based on texts of Zdeněk Mathauser, where he deals with construction and principles of organization in the complex artistic situation. Special attention is given to the model of so called Square of Artistic Specification and the theory of symbol. Both of those theories are related to different methodological frames such as structuralism, phenomenology and hermeneutics.