

Abstract

This bachelor thesis deals with the preparation of chiral (thio)urea and squaramide derivatives, that can act as H-bonding organocatalysts.

The catalytic efficiency of the prepared organocatalysts was explored in asymmetric Morita-Baylis-Hillman and aza-Henry reaction.