

The bachelor's thesis deals with the introduction into study olonkho. It focuses on the description of olonkho as a genre and on presentation of the particular examples. The first part deals with the comparison of the features of more olonkhos. These features are later systematised. The second part presents olonkho on examples from the excerpts from the text
Модун Эр Соботох