

Abstract

This task deals with homosexuality and progression in attitude in society. Also maps the choices which homosexual people have in the Czech Republic. What opinions they have to meet each other and what kind of help they can use. Second chapter is focused on parenthood and choices which homosexuals can impose to become parents. The chapter is about children needs and their evolution. Third chapter is focused on adoption. Practical part consists from interviews with homosexual families. Families are ten together.