supporting information required. A separate form is required for each voter and for each election.

First-Time Voters

First-time voters who registered by mail may vote absentee by mail only if the reason code is 1A, 2A, 2C, 6A, 6B, 6C, 6D, or 7A, or the voter is 65 or older and qualifies under another reason.

Absent Military and Overseas Voters

You are encouraged to use the Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) which also serves as a voter registration application. To obtain the FPCA and information, visit www.fvap.gov. Submitting this Virginia Absentee Ballot Application form will be interpreted as a request by you to discontinue any pending FPCA.

by mail is 5:00 PM the Tuesday before the election. Please mail this application to your general registrar listed on page 2. Please do not return this application to the State Board of Elections. You may also submit your application by fax or scanned email attachment.

The deadline to apply and vote absentee in-person is the Saturday before the election. Contact your general registrar for office or satellite office address and voting locations.

Delivery of Ballot

Your ballot can only be mailed to one of the following:
 (1) Voter's residence address
 (2) Voter's location while outside voter's residence county/city; or
 (3) Place of temporary confinement for illness, disability, misdemeanor conviction or awaiting trial

No ballot may be sent in care of any other person.
