

The thesis "Czech Point – roles and benefits of digitalization of New Public Management contact points with citizens and other forms of entities in our society" deals with the problem of insufficient and ineffective availability for Governments electronic services for use of private and public sector with a focus on electronical services contact points in the Czech Republic - Czech POINT.