

Summary

This bachelor work turns its attention to selected the main international violin competitions. Individual chapters are sorted by creation competition. Chapter 1 describes the international federation that ensures and helps in the functioning of many competitions. Chapter 2-7 is a competition that fall under this international federation. The last chapter is an example of competition where are two age's limits, is an independent organization and is not among the members WFIMC.

