

Abstract (in English):

This bachelor thesis pursue problematic of structural funds in program period 2007-2013. First part describes structure of regional policy EU and documentary ground of operational programmes in Czech republic. Next part is devoted to Regional operational program Střední Morava, particulary characterists of region and implementary organisation. Last part analyse administration and criteria for selection of projects in Regional operational program Střední Morava.