

APPENDIX

GIVE

First passive
Number	BNC Code	Example
G1	FSV 1119	He was given the award on Monday at the Sunday Times Literary Banquet.
G2	ANL 2887	I managed to pacify him and, in return, was given the benefit of his opinions unsolicited, I might say!
G3	HXV 68	Due to the admitted negligence of a doctor, the plaintiff was given excessive oxygen.
G4	EE5 833	We were lying on the ground in a row, pointing our rifles to our fronts, as he walked past each of us and made us repeat the different orders that we would be given , such as "unload" or "cock your weapon".
G5	CP6 100	Sources said that they have been given six weeks to finish their assignments and another four weeks' severance pay.
G6	J6P 658	Such administrators will be given titles to match up to their responsibilities: "chief executive" is not unknown.
G7	BPB 520	On a normal day at home, he is given his breakfast , which he may or may not eat depending on his mood and Trish then rides him, unless she is competing in the evening, when she delays it until later.
G8	EF0 1264	Indeed it may be (as in my case) because one deeply cares that there should be good and equal relations between men and women that one is adamant that no one human being can be given the kind of status which Christians give to Christ.
G9	EW9 78	For this the four Wardens of the Company would receive 3s 4d each: there was also a "potation" which was to be held on the preceding evening (at a cost of 12s 6d) and after the service there was a dinner (15s 6d); finally, twelve poor members of the Goldsmiths' Company were to be given a shilling each.
G10	EW9 601	Academically, the School prospered: Thomas Ashe was given a special Exhibition at St. John's College, Cambridge (the other two were already taken up), and when Howell died in August 1858 Mr. C. E. Norris, an Old Boy and a previous Goldsmiths' Exhibitioner at St. John 's College, Cambridge, was appointed to take over.
G11	H8H 3186	She rang down to the reception, and asked tetchily whether she had been given the correct room number.
G12	K1S 2308	Welcome back: Cancer patients have been given new hope by the development of a drug to prevent tumours spreading through the body.
G13	HWT 2247	All patients were given 0.625 mg daily of oral conjugated oestrogen (Premarin, Wyeth).
G14	B0M 2536	Each team was given a topic of chemical interest on the previous evening and allowed to use their own facilities to research it and prepare a presentation.

G15	FYP 56	And then, after two years, we were allowed on to the wards in our white coats and we had to erm find out about the patients and initially we were all very slow and we were given two hours to talk to a patient to find out all about them.
G16	HY5 328	When in January 1645 the French agreed to give the Dutch representatives the coveted title of "Excellency" this at once led to demands from the imperial electors that theirs must be given it also.
G17	KA1 87	The Jews were given Galilee and Nager , and Judea and the Rift Valley (West Bank) were given to Jordan.
G18	KCN 7108	He was given a week.
G19	HC1 120	He said: [The Sids of old have been given their share certificates and they are reluctant to give them up.
G20	CBF 9056	AIDS patients are being given a new vaccine which could slow down the effects of the disease.
G21	A6A 1823	Every member is given a free MU diary.
G22	KBD 8238	I mean, the only way you could do that would be if you had a till at one end and people bought whatever they wanted and were given a voucher and you walked down the other end and exchanged.
G23	HU2 568	In December 1986 she had had a transient ischaemic attack for which she had been given enteric coated aspirin (ecotrin 300 mg).
G24	K3C 265	All 48 people who took an active part in last night's exercise were given a New Brighton stick of rock.
G25	K9M 43	It places a great responsibility upon us to ensure that the children of Sunderland are given the very best possible value-for-money meals , while also ensuring that public funds are used to the best effect.
G26	CCD 167	She occupied a well-furnished chamber close to the lady Anne's apartments, and was given a wardrobe of new clothes which was an especial delight.
G27	CG0 1598	There were rumours of anger among the grain farmers, who were being given IOUs instead of cash for their crops.
G28	K5D 4235	The spokesman said the Council of Mayors of Arab Towns and Villages refused to accept the Bosnians even after it was given the text of a message from the vice president of Bosnia approving the flight.
G29	AAX 97	Environmentalists have supported the miners against Pittston strip-mining and long-wall techniques, and I was given a badge which proclaimed 'I'm Pro-Union and Pro-Choice', linking the strike with the most inflammable issue in US politics today, abortion rights.
G30	A61 1897	The tie of the white gown she had been given to wear caught in her hair and pulled it.
G31	FYT 180	Some changes, however, were made in the draft to satisfy those who had challenged it in this way: union republics were given eleven rather than seven seats each in the Supreme Soviet's Council of Nationalities and ex officio places on the Committee of Constitutional Supervision, and changes of wording were made in order to remove what Gorbachev described as the [misunderstanding] that the rights of republics had been infringed.

G32	ECT 2066	Each man was given a large hunting knife and two smaller weapons known as okapi knives.
G33	CBF 5511	The other woman at the far end of the ward had been given Daniel's tag.
G34	EE0 1404	Within a few days of opening your account you will be given your own cheque book.
G35	CBF 1961	He should have been given a medal for trying to catch a car vandal.
G36	K54 2059	He added: ' The operators should have been given at least another 12 months, rather than having to face a judge and jury overnight decision by someone on the Intervention Board.'
G37	AC2 1012	There was, of course, no such safety problem, as the safety inspector subsequently confirmed, and the steward was given the first of the warning notes, as planned.
G38	G0T 905	Some patients who exhibit distress in ways interpreted by the nursing or medical staff as some kind of illness, mental or physical, are given drugs officially.
G39	GU9 199	Each machinist was given virtually an entire garment to produce as a more satisfying method of working than 'production line' techniques.

Total: 39

Second passive

Number	BNC Code	Example
G40	ABL 1011	Thomas discussed the relationship between love and poetry much later in Feminine Influence on the Poet : [The love-poem is not for the beloved, for it is not worthy, as it is the least thing that is given to her, and none knows this better than she unless it be the lover.
G41	B3D 634	System operators and database producers provide various training courses for new and advanced users, where, in many cases, 'free' search time is given to the participants.
G42	B2W 1130	It said that the governors ,do not see the immediate necessity for applying to the Crown for a Royal Charter to be granted to this Institution' but that ' every facility' would be given to the veterinary surgeons 'for procuring an Act of Parliament to prevent certain grievances complained of by the Memorial, which could not be relieved by a Charter.'
G43	EB7 618	Some were given or sold to favoured high-ranking officials and court favourites, a practice developed by Constantius II.
G44	KA1 87	The Jews were given Galilee and Nager, and Judea and the Rift Valley (West Bank) were given to Jordan.
G45	C9V 1266	In conventional trials set up to to assess the efficacy of a new drug, the drug is given to a group of patients suffering from a particular illness, and the effects are compared with those obtained in a matched group of patients given a dummy (or placebo) drug.
G46	K54 2920	Sports groups said it would mean the loss of open space that could be given to the public.

G47	HY0 1100	As payment for this help Sisenand promised a gold dish , weighing five hundred pounds, which had been given by Aëtius to king Thorismund in the fifth century.
G48	CN2 1227	A comprehensive report of the actual meteorological conditions must be drawn up and copies of the weather forecast that were given to the crew will be included.
G49	G2T 1914	Present guidelines advise that you stick with breast or formula milk until at least six months, although some nutritionists feel that, because cow's milk is low in iron and vitamin D, it shouldn't be given to babies under a year.
G50	EEE 117	The latter had been given only a month previously to John lord Dudley , and its transfer suggests that Gloucester's role in Wales was still evolving.
Total: 11

BUY

First passive
Number	BNC code	Example
B1	AC3 317	He was bought a few drinks by workmates then took off on his own, round various bars, to finish the job properly.
B2	C8S 2679	Its clientele was almost entirely male, with just a few women -- secretaries being bought a drink by their bosses, presumably.
B3	CB0 941	I was bought a large trunk and Uncle Charlie came round one Saturday morning and sign-wrote my name on both ends, with my house number.
B4	FBN 2203	Last year I was bought a tropical set-up as a present.
B5	HGL 1317	I take off my jumper and stand in my tank top, sipping a whiskey I have been bought.
B6	HXD 1493	The landmark case on negligence is Donoghue v Stevenson [1932], in which the plaintiff had been bought a bottle of ginger beer by a friend in a cafe.
B7	KPV 3629	And then I said, then she'd been bought a hundred pound of leg waxing machine.
B8	KPV 5859	But I mean, my dad always invites his staff to have a drink at the end of the evening and I mean, most of them have already been bought a drink during the course of the evening, anyway, so they're entitled to it.
B9	KD8 1275	No they haven't, they'd been [unclear] bought a car [pause] that had been [pause] like, that it sort of been written off and rebuilt or [pause] something like that.
B10		Even the hated tourists were bought drinks.
Total: 10
Second passive

Number	BNC code	Example
B11	A25 41	Subsequently, the apotheosis of Lodge's treatment of the comedy of Catholicism, How Far Can You Go? (1980) was bought for LWT by its then head, John Birt, a lapsed Catholic.
B12	A6V 489	A new dress is bought for it and a new sari for the mother.
B13	A6V 832	In my own family in India, often enough saris are bought for me by my father or mother.
B14	A7P 573	My duffle coat was bought for me in Manchester.
B15	ACR 2290	Nor will he class them as novelties (which are exempt from the regulations) despite the fact few are bought for children .
B16	BPA 110	It, too, had been bought ex-Services .
B17	CBG 9466	She was bought for a consortium of Arabs and will stay in training next season.
B18	EE9 396	Burial insurance was bought also for children , and, given the high infant death rate, parents were accused of using the probability of a child's death as a means of accumulating a small nest-egg.
B19	FB3 198	For the first time, most music is bought , not made for oneself .
B20	FPH 2595	A great deal of my collection, of the jewellery that is, was bought for Lady Firth.]
B21	HHW 10419	Except for the last Albanians in the Labour party, I do not believe that anyone seriously disputes that the process of competition is essential to maximise what is bought for the taxpayer .
B22	K97 10637	Penny was bought as a puppy for Vicky at Christmas four years ago and cost the family £250.
B23	KB8 7138	It was erm it was bought for us in July ah July
B24	KDW 8443	Because he went on so much and then it was bought for him .
B25	CDX 1502	It was undoubtedly bought for me .
B26	AM5 854	These can be made to measure if required, but some , such as spirals and the straight stairway, can be bought as kits for you to assemble yourself.
B27	BPJ 267	Nearly all of them are bought by adults for themselves .
B28	CM1 2085	Several of these items are specific to Tyrion and Teclis but others can be bought for other High Elf characters by paying the appropriate points cost.
B29	CM1 2104	The Fangsword is specific to Eltharion and only he may carry it but the Talisman of Hoeth can be bought for other High Elf characters by paying the appropriate points cost.
B30		A round-trip ticket was bought for him as if he were alive.
B31		The home was bought for her by Francis Ford and Eleanor Coppola, grandparents to Jacqui's now 20-year-old daughter, Gia Coppola.
B32		" The boy I'd been bought for went to school during the day," Preston wrote.
B33		If the twins see the lovely dresses and pretty bowls that have been bought for them , they will be content and have no reason to hurt their siblings.
B34		The simple people didn't have enough to eat, they didn't have rice, they were dying, and the leaders wanted food to be bought for themselves from all over the world.

B35		And Mary Rogers Pearson, beautiful, luminous, huddled up on the bed, her bare shoulders marbled in the wedding-night moonlight that was streaming down across those Smoky Mountains and on in through the cabin window, Mary Rogers Pearson, who was armed only with her honeymoon nightgown of Italian lace which was bought for her in Memphis at the Helen Shop, Mary held on.
B36		Since then, the young woman, Patricia Bowman, moved from Ohio to Florida, where she held jobs sporadically, took college classes occasionally, had a child and moved into a house near Palm Beach that was bought for her by her stepfather, Michael G. O'Neil, the former chairman of the General Tire and Rubber Company.
B37		It should have been bought for her.
B38		You know, I've never had any money of my own, everything has always been bought for me.
B39		The fax had been bought for Mr Perholt , an editorial consultant, to work from home when he was let go or made redundant in the banal sense, but its main user was Gillian Perholt, who received E-mail and story variants from narratologists in Cairo and Auckland, Osaka and Port of Spain.
B40		Afterward, at bars all around Wrigley, beers were bought for any man or woman wearing but one shoe.
B41		She commented that what was most memorable about her own confirmation was that (polished shoes were bought for her and she wore a white embroidered dress).
B42		Now there are charges the goods were bought for the army but sold to line generals' pockets.
B43		As a matter of fact, it was bought for him because he didn't have the money at the time.
B44		It was bought for them by Ernest Thornton, who was using his forced guardianship of his sisters, mother and nephew as an opportunity to invest in the fading grandeur (and prices) of South London property.
B45		They said some land was bought somewhere for people called the Navajo.
B46		I don't have to be confirmed in homemade clothes, but rather material for clothing was bought for me.
B47		I mean, it was bought for him by me.
B48		New clothes to wear home had been bought for me.
B49		Your editor might ask you to reconsider wording, or if your book is bought for a school book club , they might ask you to take out certain words they find objectionable.
B50		If one of his bears is bought for a child , Weihert substitutes safe plastic eyes
Total: 40		