

Annotation

This thesis depicts the personage of professor Milan Salajka. The body of my work ranges from his early childhood until his decease. It follows Salajka's spiritual activities and his subsequent scholastic work at Hus' faculty as well as his career as an ecumenical and peace-worker. It also focuses on his literary activities. His life is described on a background of history of Czechoslovak (Hussite) Church.