

Abstract

This thesis will deal what is the impact on the life of a young woman with breast cancer disease who is take care of at least one child. More specifically, it will focus on the area of motherhood, partnerships and financial security at a time during treatment. The author will try to uncover how the effects of the disease affecting these areas were perceived by women.

Keywords

Disease, breast cancer, social support, motherhood, partnership, financial security.